

(b) Seed banks often conserve endangered plants by storing samples of their seeds.

The seeds are dried and then frozen.

Explain the advantages of drying seeds before storage.

(2)

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---