

- 9 The Hood Island giant tortoise (Chelonoidis hoodensis) is only found on one of the Galapagos Islands.

The photograph shows two Hood Island giant tortoises fighting over territory.

(Source: © Minden Pictures / Alamy Stock Photo)

- (a) Which of the following is a term that would be used to describe the fact that this species of giant tortoise is found only on the Galapagos Islands?

(1)

- A diversity
- B endemic
- C isolation
- D linkage